October 2018

Kathryn Staud Freckleton was the youngest of seven children, and her brother Karl Staud was the eldest. Kathryn and Karl attended Catholic grade schools, and Kathryn worked for Catholic Charities as a social worker after college. Kathryn received a Master's Degree in an era when few women attended college. Kathryn and Howard, and Karl and Marguerite valued education and were committed to the very best for their children. After Howard's death at a young age, the Stauds supported Kathryn and helped raise and educate her children.
